KCYA : Facility Rental FAQs

Q: Can I get into the room early to set up?

A: When scheduling, please include set-up and tear down time. Groups will only be permitted to use the room for the time slot it has been scheduled.

Q: Is parking included in my reservation?

A: KCYA has a parking lot with approximately 40 spaces. Time of day and event calendar may limit this number. However, there is additional parking directly across the street at 3731 Main Street, and on-street parking on Main Street (except 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM, M-F)

Q: Can I bring food and drink into the Community room?

A: Yes, however, no red wine in carpeted rooms.

Q: Can we hang up promotional tools or decorations?

A: The Community Room, Dance Studios and Creativity Lab have large magnetic dry-erase boards that are available for your use. The Auditorium has several large rolling magnetic and push-pin room dividers that are available for your use. Please let us know what your needs are and we will work to accommodate you. Groups may not post any items to the wall.

Q: Is it OK to exceed the maximum capacity listed for the room?

A: No, each room has a max limit (see individual room details) due to fire code restrictions.

Q: Does KCYA provide Security?

A: KCYA does not provide event security. You may provide your own security.

Q: Can I rent your space to hold classes?

A: No, the KCYA facility is not available for rent to individuals or groups wishing to hold classes for children or adults.

KCYA : General FAQs

Q: What is KANSAS CITY YOUNG AUDIENCES?

A: Kansas City Young Audiences is a 501 (c)3 nonprofit organization, founded in 1961, with a mission to engage all youth in the arts, promote creativity and inspire success in education.

For more than five decades, Kansas City Young Audiences has had the opportunity to do something extraordinary-help students on their amazing journey of discovery. We do that by:

- Harnessing the power of the arts in learning
- Offering the broadest variety of arts education programs in the area
- Backing our methods up with an unrivaled history of success with students and educators

Serving more than 6 million children in our history, KCYA is the largest provider of arts education programs in the Kansas City area and is an affiliate of the national Young Audiences Arts for Learning network.

In a nutshell, KCYA provides arts experiences in schools (classroom workshops, artist residencies and school performance assemblies) and at our midtown location (camps and classes in dance, music, theatre, and the visual arts).

Q: How long has KCYA been in Midtown?

A: We moved into our beautiful new home on Main Street in December 2016.

Q: Does KCYA offer birthday parties?

A: Yes! Children's birthday party packages are available. Let our staff customize an art experience for your child and up to 20 of their friends! Call or check KCYA.org

Q: Does KCYA offer Professional Development?

A: Yes! KCYA offers a variety of on-site arts-integration Professional Development seminars. Give our programming team a call: 816.531.4022 x1007.
